of said city a permit for that purpose. Such permit may be issued by said board of health upon the payment of a fee of $60, and said permit shall expire at the end of one year from the date thereof. The building shall be used for the keeping, slaughtering, and sale of poultry only.

Each stall holder in public poultry slaughterhouses shall be required to secure an annual poultry permit from the board of health for the purpose of keeping live poultry at said stall. No such permit shall be issued until the requirements of the board of health or of the health officer to insure a sanitary conduction [sic] of the premises shall first have been met or complied with. Such permits shall expire on the 1st day of May of each year. The fee for such permit will be $1.

Premises—Required to Have Supply of Pure Water Before Being Occupied.
(Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

To amend section 783 of the sanitary code so as to read:

SEC. 783. No premises shall be rented, let, leased, or occupied as a tenement house, dwelling house or apartment house unless said premises shall have a plentiful supply of pure water, suitable for domestic purposes, furnished at one or more places in such house or yard so that the same may be adequate and reasonably convenient for the use of the occupants of said house.

Any owner, agent, lessee or occupant of any building or buildings who shall violate, or fail to comply with any of the provisions of sections 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, or 783 of this code, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of $25 for the first offense and for each subsequent offense the sum of $50.

Buildings and Premises—Offensive Matter and Nuisances—Removal and Abatement. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

To amend section 822 of the sanitary code so as to read:

SEC. 822. Any owner, agent, tenant, lessee or occupant of any lot, ground, building, house or stable in this city, on notice from this board, or the health officer, shall forthwith remove from said lot, ground, building, house, or stable, any rubbish, garbage, offal, or any offensive matter or thing, or any weeds or growing vegetation liable to become the breeding grounds for mosquitoes or the hiding place for nuisances, or any poisonous plants; and any person on notice from this board or the health officer, shall abate any nuisance existing on any premises of which he may be the lessee, owner, agent, tenant or occupant.

Any person offending against, or violating the provisions of this section, or any of them, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of $10 for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense the sum of $25.

If any person shall refuse or neglect to remove any foul or obnoxious or hurtful matter or thing, or if any person shall refuse or neglect to abate any nuisance, then this board may proceed under the provisions of "An act to revise, consolidate and amend certain acts concerning boards of health in this State," approved March 31, 1887, and the supplements thereto, to remove said nuisance, source of foulness, or cause of sickness, and to recover, by action of debt against such person, the expense incurred by said board by such removal.

Rags, Bones, Offal, and Refuse Matter—Collection and Transportation—Permit Required. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 1, 1916.)

Section 819 of the sanitary code amended to read as follows:

SEC. 819. No rags, bones, offal, butchers' refuse, tannery scrapings, manure, or other refuse matter liable to decay, shall be brought into, gathered, collected, accumulated, stored, exposed, carried, or transported in any manner through any street or public place, or into any building or cellar in the city of Newark, except by per-
